Summer Camp at Camp Banksia, Port Sorell, NW Tasmania

Theme: Summer of Love

The Summer of Love was a social phenomenon that occurred during the summer of 1967, when as many as 100,000 people, mostly young people sporting hippie fashions of dress and behaviour, converged in San Francisco's neighborhood of Haight-Ashbury. (from Wikipedia)

If you'd like to teach a workshop, please reference the theme – music from 1967 or just something that evokes 'summer' or 'love'. Thanks! And everyone is invited to dress up for the theme as well.

It will also be a 10 Year Anniversary celebration for Cradle Coast Cloggers. We'd love to have you join us.

Location: 15-20 minutes' drive from Devonport Airport or the Spirit of Tasmania terminal
1.25 hours' drive from Launceston Airport

Further details about cost and inclusions will be available soon, but for now please Save the Date!
